“EWS LUXEMBOURG ECONOMIC TALKS”

26 February 2014

By the Cabinet of Mr Henri Grethen

On 26 February 2014, Mr Henri Grethen played host to the European Economic Senate (EWS) at the ECA.

The European Economic Senate (EWS) is a recognised non-partisan European committee composed of successful companies and individuals from all sectors of the European economy who make their knowledge and expertise available to political decision-makers, supporting the constructively critical approach of the European Court of Auditors.

The EWS's economic talks with Mr Henri Grethen, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg's Member at the European Court of Auditors, and the staff of his private office presented an ideal opportunity for the assembled entrepreneurs from all over Europe to engage in dialogue in order to gain a deeper insight into the work currently being carried out by the European Court of Auditors, and to put forward views from the perspective of their companies.

Former Commission President Jacques Santer, an honorary member of the EWS, was also present at the event.
